

High Degree of Success

Newly graduated from Plymouth College of Art with a First degree, guests attended the launch of Sacha Foster's first exhibition of her contemporary metalwork at 45 Southside Gallery, Plymouth.

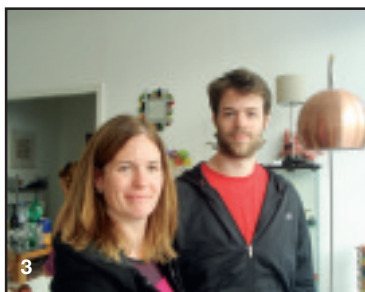

- 1 Kirsten Kruse (gallery owner), Kate Wood (Devon Life) and Mathias Landwehr (gallery owner)
- 2 Janey Pointing, Freddie Brickell, Sacha Foster and Rose Bennett
- 3 Vicky and James Saunders
- 4 Tilly Falvey, Ezme Butterfield and Tracey Falvey

1

2

3

4

PHOTO: KATE WOOD

Artists of the Tamar Valley

- 1 Jenny George (artist)
- 2 Martin Clark (artist), Lydia Corbett/Sylvette David, Teresa Wicksteed (artist)
- 3 Lucy and Emily Everist, with Lydia Corbett/Sylvette David

The Preview of the Drawn to the Valley Artists' Summer Exhibition was opened by Picasso's Muse, the famous "Girl with a Pony Tail", Sylvette David, now Lydia Corbett the Devon artist. Artists and guests were entranced by her stories of the time she was Picasso's model. The Drawn to the Valley Summer Exhibition at Tavistock Town Hall included a mixture of work in various mediums and styles, by around 50 artists. Drawn to the Valley artists live and work on both sides of the River Tamar, in Devon and Cornwall.

1

2

3

Voetstoots 2

Voetstoots welcomed guests to their new purpose-built gallery and art studio in New Quay Street by Back Beach in Teignmouth. This is the second Voetstoots gallery in the town and currently features owner Mos's work.

- 1 'Mos' (gallery owner)
- 2 Michael Corbett and Hilary Scott
- 3 Annie Good (Goodie Productions)
- 4 Vanessa Grantham (The Ship Inn, Teignmouth) and Kate Roberts (Voetstoots)

1

2

3

4

PHOTOS: GISELLE LAIT